

GOVERNOR SMALL'S ATTORNEYS OVERRULED

'DEFENSE' ATTACK ON THE STATE'S BILL OF PARTICULARS FAILED

SMALL AND CURTIS ORDERED TO PLEAD

Judge Edwards' Ruling Causes Big Surprise—Attorneys for Governor Small and Curtis to Present Motion for Separate Trial—Hurried Re-Arranging of Plans Necessary

WAUKEGAN, Ill., Jan. 14.—The prosecution in the case of Governor Len Small and Vernon Curtis, charged with conspiracy to defraud the state, won a victory today when Judge Claire C. Edwards overruled an attack by the defense on the state's bill of particulars.

Judge Edwards ordered the defendants arraigned to enter their pleas, but both had left for Chicago a few minutes earlier and the arraignment finally was set for next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

At the same time the defense will present a motion for a separate trial for Mr. Small and Mr. Curtis.

The decision of the court furnished a dramatic surprise at the close of a day of argument in which the defense attacked the state's bill of particulars as "irrelevant, incompetent, impertinent and scandalous."

Court recessed for a few minutes at the close of the defense attack while attorneys for both sides reached an agreement whereby the state was to have begun arguments today and continued them Monday.

MUSCLE SHOALS DISPOSITION IS OPEN QUESTION

Three Offers Are Now Up for Consideration

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The question of disposing of the government's properties at Muscle Shoals, Alabama, to private interests by lease, purchase or agreement to complete was divided today into three separate parts.

Law officers of the war department were directed to begin work of fitting into legal phrases a contract involving Secretary Weeks' desires with regard to the proposal of Henry Ford which the war secretary has announced will be submitted to congress with comments as soon as the papers were prepared and Mr. Ford's signature affixed.

The offers submitted by C. C. Tinkler of San Francisco, was being rushed to that city for modification so as to include a provision for the manufacture of nitrates at the plant, and until the dams had been completed and were ready for operation. Mr. Tinkler left Chicago yesterday for San Francisco.

After conferences there with officials of the construction company of North America, of which he is president, Mr. Tinkler is expected to return here and formally present his proposal to the war secretary. As a third part Mr. Frederick Engstrom, president of the Newport Shipbuilding company of Wilmington, N. C., and engineers assisting him were engaged in making slight changes in the offer he has already submitted to Mr. Weeks.

They were said to involve the inclusion of a more abundant provision for nitrate manufacture at Muscle Shoals than had been submitted.

PROHIBITION AGENTS INTERRUPT TEA PARTY

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—A tea party was interrupted today when twelve prohibition agents from Prohibition Director Charles Gregory's office raided the Casino Club, an exclusive gathering place for Chicago's elite on the gold coast.

The door to the room in which Mrs. Wallace C. Winters was giving her party was barred when the prohibition agents attempted to enter. In a rear room they found two gallons of wine which they confiscated.

WOMENS CLUBS URGED CONTINUE A GREAT WORK

Mrs. Harding Sends Letter to Club Members

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Fifteen hundred women attending the anniversary luncheon of the Women's National Republican club, received a letter from Mrs. Warren G. Harding today urging "effective and unrelenting effort" in organization education and civic training among women.

Mrs. Harding was to have been guest of honor but she was prevented from attending by exhaustion, following the diplomatic reception, a letter from the president explained.

Her place was taken by Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, wife of the vice president.

M. S. Harding's Letter.

"Women," Mrs. Harding wrote "have come suddenly into a mighty responsibility for the national interest.

"It is a responsibility which must be discharged in a larger than merely partisan way, and yet I feel very sure is best to be dealt with through the instruments of party loyal to conviction and emotion.

"If I did not feel that the nation could and, in the long run, must be served the best through parties, I would be a partisan Republican, but I do feel this and therefore am convinced the maintenance of effective party organization and unremitting work is a duty second to none.

"These are times when the tendency to disintegration of old institutions warns us on all sides of the need to hold fast to those who have established themselves as sound, reliable, confidence-inspiring. For these things the Republican party has always stood and stands today. For the women of America to make sure that their full participation in public affairs shall not become responsible for any departure from the high purposes of the past, and the maintenance of those purposes, requires that we Republican women shall devote our utmost energy to that work of organization, education and advancement which is so well typified in your aggressive and efficient club."

Speakers at the luncheon included Alice Robertson, congresswoman from Oklahoma, Miss Eleanor Franklin Egan of the American Advisory committee to the arms conference Mrs. Medill McCormick and Mrs. Arthur Livermore the club president.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS COUNCIL ADJOURNS

GENEVA, Jan. 14.—The council of the league of nations which has been in session here since last week, adjourned tonight until April 25.

The next meeting will be held at Geneva when, according to resolutions adopted today, the plan of holding public sessions will be followed except when personalities are being discussed or other reasons make closed sessions necessary.

Dr. Gastao de Cunha of Brazil was chosen president of the council to succeed Paul Hymans of Belgium.

Today's session was taken up largely with discussion of the minorities in Cilicia and with disposing of current business.

The council created a permanent advisory commission to take up the question of the white slave traffic and invited Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan, Spain, Denmark, Poland, Rumania and Uruguay to name delegates. The council decided to send a medical commission to the Black and Mediterranean ports to study the subject of quarantine and disinfection, with a view to preparation of a new international sanitary code.

PREMIERSHIP OF FRANCE TAKEN BY POINCARÉ

Expects to Have New Cabinet Complete at Once

(By The Associated Press) PARIS, Jan. 14.—M. Poincaré, who has accepted the premiership to succeed M. Briand and expects to have his cabinet completed tomorrow, engaged in a lengthy conversation today with the British prime minister. What conclusion the heads of the two governments reached is not known but M. Poincaré, in a statement to the correspondents this evening, declared that "international questions henceforth will be settled as heretofore thru ambassadors."

This would mean the virtual disappearance of the supreme council, although he added:

"There must be one final meeting of the supreme council to which all the allies should be invited should the French viewpoint prevail, and I have good reasons to believe that it will, so far as Great Britain is concerned. Let us have our ambassadors settle these questions for us."

Meets Lloyd George

"My meeting with Mr. Lloyd George," he said, "was most amicable. We got along finely together."

The British premier came to Paris with ratification of the policy of a moratorium for Germany tentatively granted by the reparations commission but just with strong opposition from M. Poincaré who argued that Germany had not paid to the limit of her capacity and that some means must be found for lightening France's burden. He told Mr. Lloyd George that Germany should be called upon to impose heavier taxation equivalent per head to the French; otherwise there could be no talk of a moratorium.

The conclusion in Belgian circles, which have rallied to the British and Italian views is that France stands alone on the reparations problem.

Mr. Lloyd George received Premier Theunis and Foreign Minister Jaspar of Belgium and also saw M. DeLasterrie, who is slated for the ministry of finance in the Poincaré cabinet, concerning the central international corporation, officially adopted by the Cannes conference to which M. Poincaré is said to agree.

Form Cabinet Soon

Both the Belgian and German delegations were anxious to hear the result of the Lloyd George-Poincaré discussions and received confidential information, which was greeted by the Germans apparently with satisfaction while the Belgians appeared to be somewhat concerned.

M. Poincaré announced this evening that his cabinet had been formed in part and would be complete by noon tomorrow. M. Barthou has accepted the post of minister of justice and the vice-presidency of the council.

M. Maginot will be minister of war and director of pensions, the pension ministry being eliminated from his cabinet. M. Maunoury has been appointed minister of the interior; M. Letroquer, public works and M. DeLasterrie, finance. A message has been sent to M. Sarraut at Washington asking him officially if he desires to remain at the head of the ministry of the colonies.

Alsace and Lorraine

Alsace-Lorraine, for the first time since 1870, will be administered so far as justice is concerned, under the ministry of justice at Paris. M. Poincaré having decided that the redeemed provinces henceforth shall be treated like the old department eliminating the German laws and court's code.

The elimination of two ministries and four under-secretaries of state is expected to prove a saving to the French budget of seven million francs.

OLDEST WOMAN MAYOR IN UNITED STATES

(By The Associated Press) DELAWARE, Ohio, Jan. 14.—Mrs. Mary McFadden, 80 years of age Monday will assume the duties of mayor of Magnolia Springs, a village health resort near here. She probably will be the oldest woman mayor in the United States.

Mrs. McFadden was appointed to the office of chief executive of the village by Mayor N. G. Brown who has gone south to spend the winter.

As a means of getting council members out to meetings, Mrs. McFadden proposes to serve home made doughnuts and coffee. This is only one of the many ideas concerning city government which she proposes to inaugurate.

POINCARÉ NAMES HIS NEW CABINET

PARIS, Jan. 15.—After a conference with M. Barthou and other supporters lasting until midnight M. Poincaré announced that his cabinet had been definitely formed as follows:

FREE STATE OF IRISH IS NOW WORKING BODY

Final Formalities of Treaty Approval Are Complete

(By The Associated Press) DUBLIN, Jan. 14.—The provisional government of the Irish Free State is now a functioning body.

Final formalities of approving the treaty with England were carried out today when, after an historic meeting in the Mansion House of representatives of the Southern Irish constituencies who formally ratified the treaty, Eamonn Duggan took to Dublin Castle a copy of the treaty signed by the members of the new government as provided for in the terms of the peace pact.

Sixty five members elected to sit in the house of commons in Southern Ireland attended the morning meeting. No women representatives nor any of the other adherents to Eamonn DeValera, former Republican president were present.

Collins is Appointed.

First on the list of eight men appointed as constituting the provisional government is the name of Michael Collins, and it is assumed he will be made the nominal head. As a matter of fact, however, the correspondent is authoritatively informed that Arthur Griffith is president of the Dail Eireann and chairman of the delegation that negotiated the treaty, will be looked to as its supreme authority.

The position of Mr. Griffith is one of peculiar difficulty. As president of the Dail he occupies the same position as did Mr. DeValera and urging the debates on the treaty in the Dail, Miss Mary Mac Swiney and Erskine Childers demanded that he keep his two offices of Republican president and head of the new administration perfectly distinct.

Opinions Expressed.

Miss Mac Swiney, Mr. Childers and others of the Republican party also stressed the necessity of keeping the Irish Republic parliament under the authority only of the Dail Eireann. It is regarded as significant therefore, that neither Mr. Griffith nor Richard Mulcahy, the Dail's new minister of defense, has a nominal place in the new administration.

The ministers appointed to administer the provisional government include with two or three exceptions, all the members of Mr. Griffith's Republican cabinet.

William Deroisite (Liam Roisite) chairman of the meeting which ratified the treaty made it plain that the assembly had no existence as a parliament. He pointed out that it had never met before and would never meet again.

The speech made by Mr. Griffith at the meeting contemplated the complete suppression of the Dail upon the election of a free state parliament.

The drafting of a constitution will be the most important task of the provisional government.

Constitutional lawyers here and perhaps in England probably will be called to assist. The feeling in Dublin is highly optimistic and cheerful.

DISARM CONFERENCE HAS ABOUT CONCLUDED QUESTIONS PRESENTED

Shantung and General Far Eastern Issues Alone Remain—Japan and China in Closer Accord—Look for Resumption of Committee Sessions—Outlook is Promising

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The Shantung negotiations took another step forward today while all of the other activities of the arms conference were at a standstill.

The Japanese and Chinese agreed on some of the preliminary moves looking toward complete restoration of Kiachow territory to China.

At the same time there was apparent in some quarters a mounting hope that the question of the Shantung railroad, the only point on which the two delegations have found themselves completely deadlocked, would be settled soon on the basis of American and British compromise suggestions.

Conference officials were talking tonight of a resumption of the sessions of the far eastern committee next week.

Besides Shantung the general far eastern issues constitute virtually the only remaining business of the conference. A reply still is awaited from Tokio regarding the Pacific fortifications section of the naval treaty but most of the delegates are so confident the point would be easily settled that they are beginning to speak of the naval negotiations as closed.

A view that the far-eastern discussions should be held in at once to give free rein for the Shantung negotiations has been emphasized in American quarters particularly it being argued that the Japanese and Chinese were fully occupied with the question of the Kachow leasehold and the far eastern committee could not go ahead without them. In the background of this proposal has appeared a suggestion that it might also help solve the remaining problems of the far east if the Shantung question first were put out of the way. It is evident, however, that not all the delegations agree with the American view. After nine weeks of discussion with political conditions shaping in foreign capitals some of the delegates are outspoken in their desire to avoid every unnecessary delay in the main tasks of the conference.

That some spirited clashes of opinion are to be expected when the far eastern meetings are resumed is becoming more apparent as the various delegations develop their positions. Today Dr. Chung-Hui Wang of the Chinese delegation, issued a formal statement reaffirming the determination of China to press her request for conference discussion of the twenty-one demands, despite the objections of the Japanese.

China's Proposals.

Meantime among other delegations there developed evidences that not only this request but the Chinese proposal for abolition of spheres of influence and for restoration of leased areas face a dubious prospect.

At today's meeting the delegates advanced far in the discussion of the restitution of the leased territory of Kiachow.

Jap's Agreement.

The Japanese agreed to turn over to China all official documents which have been accumulated during Japanese administration of the territory notably those referring to the land titles. On Monday, when the conversations will be resumed the delegates will take up the question of how soon the territory is to be restored and then go on to the questions of the salt fields and the iron and coal mines aiming to clear up everything for the final settlement of essential railway problems.

Meantime the question of Pacific fortifications is in the hands of the Japanese cabinet as a result of a new proposal to define an exact zone of limitation of fortifications to the present status.

It is expected that a favorable answer will be received from Tokio in time to complete the naval discussions next week.

In the period of waiting on Shantung plans for the general treaty regarding the far east are solidifying.

The "21 Demands."

Dr. Wang's assertion that the "twenty-one demands" question would be pressed before the far eastern committee was received with manifestations of disappointment in several other delegations.

Japan entered the conference on conditions "that closed incidents would not be discussed and the representatives of other powers have conceded privately that they saw no way to bring into the discussions any subject which any sovereign nation refused to consider.

In addition some American and other delegates are known to hold firmly to the belief that the treaties and agreements growing out of the twenty-one demands cannot be judged invalid because they were signed under duress. To take any such position they argue would call into question most of the geographic boundary lines now existing throughout the world.

HAYS TO QUIT CABINET FOR A BIG MOVIE JOB

President Harding to Offer No Objections

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Intention of Postmaster General Hays to retire from the cabinet in the near future to become the directing head of an association of motion picture producers and distributors was announced today at the white house at the conclusion of a conference between President Harding and the postmaster general.

President Harding in a statement declared he could not "well interpose any objection to Mr. Hays retiring from the cabinet to take up a work so important" while Mr. Hays stated that he had decided to accept the offer of the motion picture interests made it clear that as yet no contract had been executed.

The postmaster general, however, expressed confidence that a satisfactory contract could be agreed upon.

Representatives of motion picture producers and distributors have been negotiating for the services of the postmaster general for some time and are understood to have outlined clearly to Mr. Hays what they wish him to undertake. Within a few days he expects to confer again with them probably in New York and unless something unforeseen developed it is expected that a contract will be signed at the meeting.

The date of his retirement from the cabinet Mr. Hays said, would depend largely on the wishes of his prospective employers.

It was said at the white house that nothing would be done toward a selection of a new postmaster general until Mr. Hays formally tenders his resignation.

STATE'S ATTORNEY COMMENTS ON LAW

Mr. Robinson Explains Why Search Warrants Cannot be Issued Upon the Filing of Mere Complaint.

State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson will from time to time call attention to the provisions of the Illinois prohibition act. The law is much more comprehensive than any of the kind ever before on the statute books. It is with the thought of informing the public that Mr. Robinson calls attention to various sections.

Section 29 of the Illinois Prohibition Act provides that: Whenever complaint is made in writing, verified by affidavit, to any judge, having cognizance of criminal offenses, that complainant has just and reasonable grounds to believe and does believe that in toxicating liquor is manufactured, possessed, kept for sale, used, disposed of, or transported in violation of any law of this state, or any mash, still or other property designed for the illegal manufacture of liquor is possessed in any house, building, premises, boat, vehicle, receptacle or any other place whatsoever (particularly describing and designating the same) with facts upon which such belief is based, the judge may issue a search warrant as hereinafter provided:

Provided, however, no warrant shall be issued to search a private dwelling occupied as such unless such residence is a place of public resort or intoxicating liquor is sold or kept for sale or possessed therein in violation of the law, or any mash, still or other property designed for the illegal manufacture of liquor is therein kept. The property seized on any such warrant shall not be taken from the officer seizing the same on any writ of replevin or other like process.

This complaint can be made by any person. The right and authority to make this complaint is not confined to the police, the sheriff, or the state's attorney. Any citizen of the county can make this complaint. This gives an opportunity to those citizens who do believe that liquor is unlawfully made or sold at any given place and who have just reasons to so believe and are willing to state upon affidavit that they do so believe stating further the grounds upon which their belief is based, to have a search warrant issued and the place in question searched whether the officers of the law want it done or not. Consequently no citizen who knows that intoxicating liquor is lawfully made or sold at a given place need complain about the failure of the officers to search the place since he can have it done himself upon making the proper complaint.

It seems to be a very common belief that any person can have a given place searched by writing the sheriff, the state's attorney or the chief of police an anonymous letter stating that liquor is unlawfully sold or manufactured there. Such persons think that upon the receipt of such a letter the officer has authority to go at once to the place and search it. They, however, good their intentions may be, are misinformed regarding the law because the law requires that a complaint in writing sworn to by the person making the complaint must be made before a judge or justice of the peace and a search warrant issued pursuant thereto before any place can be searched.

No person and no officer has the right to search any place unless he is first given a search warrant obtained in the manner hereinabove set out; and the person making the affidavit to the complaint must state facts within his own knowledge and not what has come to him by hearsay.

NEW CONFECTION MAKES BIG HIT.

Have you tried the newest confection? No? You should! It's an oblong cake and heavily coated with sweet chocolate and looks similar to the chocolate bars so long on the market, but the real secret and the delicious part about it all is the center, and that is composed of pure ice cream.

Confectioners were wondering how to fix up small cakes of ice cream so that they would keep in a solid state for several hours and finally hit upon the heavy chocolate coat, the result being a most delicious confection.

If you have never tried one you will be delighted with the result. All confectioners and candy shops sell it, though each has it under a different name. Just ask the 'boy' for the cake of chocolate covered ice cream, and he'll know.

DRAMATIC TRIUMPH COMING WEDNESDAY

'The Bat' Soon to Appear at the Grand Has Record for Long City Runs.

Each year in the theatrical world one play invariably stands out head and shoulders above all the other attractions. The past year that distinction fell to "The Bat", the dramatic triumph, written by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood. Not only has "The Bat" run for one entire year in New York, but it is still going on, playing to capacity audiences nightly. In Chicago, too, "The Bat" set a new record for that city by playing for one solid year, something never before heard of in theatrical annals of Chicago.

"The Bat" will be seen at the Grand theatre on Wednesday and theatregoers who have long been hearing of the success of this play will undoubtedly welcome the announcement. Assuredly a play that has received such universal praise from both critics and public alike will be well worth seeing.

"The Bat" is presented by Wagenhals and Kemper. They have an enviable reputation in the theatrical world as producers of successes. With "The Bat," they have brought all their skill to play and the result is, as one critic put it "a production that will keep you talking for months after it has been here and gone."

"The Bat" is a super mystery play. But it is something else as well. Running through it is one of the funniest and altogether delightfully humorous characters ever depicted on the stage. Thanks to this element in "The Bat" while it will thrill you through and through, it will, at the same time, keep you in almost constant laughter.

The production of "The Bat," to be seen here is exactly the same as that in New York and Chicago. The company is an excellent one, including:

Kate Blanche, Helen Carew, Cecile Cummings, J. G. Bertin, Jos. Rawley, Richard Mansfield, Courtney White, Wyrley Birch, Roy La Rue and Sam Kuster.

SECOND BIRTHDAY OF AMENDMENT 18 OCCURS ON JAN. 18

Report on National Prohibition by the Commissioner

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Facts and figures together with an even dozen unquestioned points in proof that the eighteenth amendment is being enforced were made public tonight by prohibition Commissioner Haynes in a formal statement on the eve of the second anniversary of the National Prohibition Act which became effective January 18, 1920.

Mr. Haynes declared the prohibition amendment was being enforced to an even greater extent than had been anticipated and predictions of opponents had not been borne out by actualities.

"The chief cause of non-enforcement," Mr. Haynes said, "was the appointment of wet officials and smuggling. This is being corrected by the appointment of officials who are in sympathy with the law."

He declared that enforcement would henceforth be a much easier undertaking for various reasons, including the attitude of the public, curtailing of sources of supply, closer cooperation of all enforcement agencies and the poisonous death dealing character of practically all illicit liquor now on the market.

Arrests for drunkenness, Mr. Haynes said, have decreased sixty percent, liquor withdrawals have been reduced 50 percent while last year's importation of liquor was one-half of one percent of the total consumption of liquor in America the year before prohibition.

Seizures of liquors were estimated by Mr. Haynes at 950,000 gallons of distilled spirits and wine, while the estimated value of property seized during the past year was $12,907,000.

Under court proceedings Mr. Haynes said, there were 30,000 federal indictments, 17,000 pleas of guilty, 21,000 convictions and 950 acquittals.

Approximately $2,000,000 was collected by the prohibition bureau he added, while the total of assessments was estimated at $57,500,000.

Expenses were placed at approximately $6,274,523.

Upwards of three hundred brewers have been investigated and charged with violation, Mr. Haynes declared.

"Fifty nine cities with a population of 30,000 or over," he said, "and a combined population of 20,000,000 including New York, Chicago and Philadelphia official and estimated figures show a decrease in arrests for drunkenness from 316,842 in 1917 to 107,768."

Mr. Haynes estimated that 17,500,000 drinkers have quit indulging in liquor.

FIRE THREATENS EXTINCTION OF

Mexia, Under Martial Law,
Now Fights Fire—Lacks
Water and Apparatus

(By The Associated Press)
DALLAS, Texas, Jan. 14.—Fire which broke out in the business section of Mexia early tonight had burned all wires of the Southwestern Bell Telephone and Telegraph company leading into that city. Reports received here before the wires went out were that several buildings on the south side of town were burning.

The Western Union Telegraph company announced at 7 o'clock that all their wires to Mexia had gone out. Mexia is Texas' newest oil town and at present is under martial law as the result of a "clean up" of the town begun several days ago by state authorities.

The Southwestern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company declared that just before their wires went out that preparations were being made to dynamite their building in order to check the fire.

Fire Fighters Hampered.
WORTHAM, Texas, Jan. 14.—Lack of water and fire fighting apparatus in Mexia is reported here to be hampering the work of firemen fighting the fire which broke out in the business section of that oil town tonight. The fire is said to have started in a restaurant on the main street of the town.

Official Under Arrest.
WACO, Texas, Jan. 14.—Fifteen prisoners including County Attorney Eubanks and Deputy Sheriff Steele, of Limestone county, today were brought here from Mexia, where martial law has been declared by Governor Pat M. Neff.

The county attorney is accused of conspiracy and violating the federal prohibition law. Deputy Sheriff Steele is charged with resisting an officer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Thompson and family were doing shopping in the city yesterday.

THIN FRAIL PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE TANLAC

Hundreds of Men and Women in Jacksonville Appear to be Physical Wrecks Simply Because Their Systems are Starving for Nourishment

There are hundreds of thin, run-down, nervous men and women right here in Jacksonville who should be strong, sturdy and vigorous, with rich, red blood tingling through their veins and feeling brimful of life and energy, if they would only profit by the experience of others all over the United States and Canada, and assist nature to digest the food they eat, by simply taking Tanlac.

Millions of people have not only been relieved of the most obstinate forms of dyspepsia and indigestion by Tanlac after other remedies have failed, but large numbers of them have reported a remarkable and rapid increase in weight and a return to normal health and strength by its use.

In fact, so phenomenal have been the gains in weight by thin, frail people through the use of Tanlac that this remarkable preparation is now being proclaimed everywhere as the World's Greatest Tonic.

Food people eat does them absolutely no good unless they digest it properly. When you suffer from indigestion and other forms of stomach trouble, the food does you harm instead of good, because food which is not digested stays in the stomach and ferments, causing pains, swelling, gas on stomach, shortness of breath, bad taste in the mouth, dizziness and many other disagreeable symptoms. If this condition is permitted to run on for an indefinite period the system becomes saturated with poisons, the patient becomes thin and pale and in time various complications are apt to result.

Tanlac is a powerful reconstructive tonic and quickly overcomes this condition by aiding nature to eliminate the impurities from the system in a natural way and enable the vital organs to properly perform their functions. That is why it is called Nature's Medicine.

In fact there is not a single portion of the body that is not benefited by the helpful action of Tanlac, which begins its work by stimulating the digestive and assimilative organs, thereby enriching the blood and invigorating the entire system. Next, it enables the weak, worn-out stomach to thoroughly digest its food and convert the nourishing elements into bone, blood and muscle. The result is you feel strong, sturdy and well with the proper amount of flesh, as Nature intended.

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover Drug Co. and Shreve's Drug Co., and leading drug stores everywhere.—Adv.

W. D. HENRY DIED AT WOODSON LAST NIGHT

Long Time Resident of County Passed Away Very Suddenly Saturday Night at Home of Son, Jesse Henry.

W. D. Henry, a long time resident of Woodson, died very suddenly Saturday night. The deceased for a number of years had made his home with his son, Jesse Henry. Saturday night shortly after 9 o'clock Mr. Henry went to the well near the kitchen door. As he did not return as soon as usual one of the children went out into the yard and Mr. Henry was found lying upon the well platform. He was carried into the house and a physician summoned, but life was extinct and death must have been almost instantaneous.

Mr. Henry had spent practically all of his life in Morgan county. He served thru the Civil War and in the after the war days engaged in farming in Woodson precinct. When old age came on he retired from active business, altho he was unusually vigorous.

For a great many years Mr. Henry had been identified with the Masonic lodge and always maintained his interest in the work of the fraternity. He held membership in the Christian church and was accounted one of the reliable and trustworthy residents of his home town. Mr. Henry was a man of unusually fine spirit and his cheerful way and the correctness of his life gave inspiration to many of younger years.

Mrs. Henry died about twenty-five years ago. Surviving are one son, Jesse Henry, together with one sister and two brothers: Mrs. John E. Wright, S. W. Henry and John R. Henry.

Coroner Rose will hold an inquest today and funeral arrangements will be completed.

ILLINOIS WINS FROM SHURTLEFF

Game Was a Poor Exhibition—Contest Ended Unsatisfactorily to Both Teams.

Displaying a complete reversal of form over that shown at Alton a week ago the Shurtleff College basketball team threw a score into the over-confident Illinois players during the first half of last night's contest. Outplaying the local team thru most of the half and leading in the score at various times, Shurtleff upset the Illinois expectations of running away with the game. The Blue and White led at half time by the scant margin of two points, 11 to 9. Each team had scored four field goals but Antrobus had thrown three free trials out of six while Rice, the lanky Shurtleff center, had succeeded in catching but one out of five attempts and his teammate, Shill, had missed four straight.

In the second half the Illinois players woke up to the fact that they had a real job on their hands. Their passing and goal throwing was greatly improved. Capt. Mellon came thru with three classy shots which counted goals, two of them simply lying right in the basket following some fast floor work. Cully came thru with one of his characteristic meteor-like dashes down the floor which netted a field goal.

Game Was Uninteresting During this abbreviated half, Shill and Potter each scored a field goal for Shurtleff and Rice and Shill each threw a free throw, making a total of six points to Illinois' eighteen for the half.

From the spectators' standpoint the game was not very interesting. R. E. Harmon, who refereed, called fouls closely. Shurtleff suffered 15 penalties and Illinois 14. Sixteen of these twenty-nine were technical fouls, most of which were for advancing with the ball. The players of both teams and the spectators were not accustomed to such close calling of fouls.

With the score standing 29 to 15 in Illinois' favor and with approximately four minutes yet to play, the game was suddenly terminated by the Shurtleff team leaving the playing floor.

Just after Illinois had scored a field goal and while the referee was tossing the ball up at center an incoming Shurtleff substitute called for "time out." The Shurtleff player had come upon the floor from behind the official. Not knowing that the player was a substitute, Harmon informed him that he could not call "time out" until his team was in possession of the ball. Harmon blew his whistle, stopped play and again tossed the ball up at center. A Shurtleff player secured possession of the ball and immediately called "time out," as he was entitled to do. Coach Lowery then walked on the floor and rather pointedly addressed the referee who replied that he had heard no score keeper's horn. Inquiry by the referee drew the reply from the score keepers that they had blown no horn. Then the referee, a little too exacting, perhaps, called a foul on the Shurtleff team seemingly because Coach Lowery had come upon the floor, whereupon the latter called his players from the floor and the game ended.

Coach Lowery had the best interests of his team in mind when he broke into the game to inquire why his player had not been permitted to substitute. The referee, thinking that the Shurtleff man who called "time out" was already in the game, very naturally refused to grant the request until the ball was in possession of a Shurtleff player, as is the procedure specified in the rules.

If the referee had taken a little time to learn the situation; if the visiting coach had acted a little more deliberately; and if the Shurtleff player had announced himself as a substitute instead of calling "time out," the whole regrettable occurrence might have been avoided. Everybody is sorry that it happened.

ILLINI WIN FIRST CONFERENCE GAME

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 14.—Illinois won its first Western Conference basketball game of the season here tonight, defeating Ohio State by a score of 48 to 36. The first half of the game ended in a tie 24 to 24. Illinois took the lead immediately after the opening of the second half. Captain Carney and Stillwell were the chief point getters for Illinois.

WISCONSIN WON FROM MICHIGAN

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 14.—Wisconsin won its third straight Western Conference basketball game here tonight when it defeated Michigan 18 to 16 in overtime play. Taylor's ten points in the first half gave the Badgers a 10 to 6 lead when the period ended. Long shots by Ely and Rea brought the score to a tie in the closing minutes. Caesar added two points for Wisconsin by a long basket in the overtime.

Charles Watson of Woodson, had occasion to come to the city yesterday.

GILL'S TRACK TEAM LOOKS GOOD AGAIN

Should Be Better than in 1921—Will Attend Drake Relays This Year.

URBANA, Ill., (By the A. P.)—Coach Harry Gill's track prospects for the University of Illinois this season look even better than last year when the Illini won the first national intercollegiate meet at Chicago, in the opinion of athletic followers.

The Illini last year carried away more honors than any other team at the Penn Games by winning the four mile and distance medley races, placed first in the hop step and jump, first and third in the high jump, first in the discus and second in the javelin.

The team will not go to Penn this year, but will attend the Drake Relays as usual. After the Illini indoor relay carnival here, March 4, and the indoor conference the following week, the men will take to the out-of-doors in preparation for their trip to Texas, April 13 to 21.

The Illini will meet Rice Institute at Houston, Saturday, April 15, and the University of Texas on the following Wednesday at Austin. This will end the journey. Several other meets were planned, but because of lack of time and because Coach Gill does not want to overtax his athletes, the men will return and prepare for the Drake games. Twenty men will make the southern jaunt.

Captain Russell Wharton, winner of the indoor and outdoor conference two mile races last year, has started his regular training. Gordon McGinnis, who fared so well on the Illinois championship cross country team this fall, is running more smoothly in his training than he has ever done before. Ed Wells, Deussenberry, Patterson, Swanson and Yates are the other Illini distance runners who should place well this season.

Illinois will be stronger in the javelin and dashes the only two events in which the Illini have been weak in previous years. The return of Bunnie Buchanan, Illinois pole vaulter of two years ago, has brightened prospects in this event, for he is accredited with leaps of over 11 feet. Collins and Sharp are also out for the pole vault. Perry Nagel, dashman who pulled a tendon in his leg last year one week before the indoor conference meet, has returned to the squad and looks good. Bob Ayres, freshman last year and formerly the ginsdale high school sprint marvel is the one Illini ten second man. Hank Wilcox is also good in the dash.

In Paul Sweet, Dave Fields, Fred Schlappizzi and Douglas Fassenden, Illinois will have a fast mile relay quartet and an excellent set of 440 men. All of them have run better than 51 seconds flat. H. M. Osborne, winner of the high jump and hop step and jump at Penn last year has returned and leaped 5 feet in the high jump the first day of practice. He placed second in the all-around competition event in the Illini carnival last year. Brutus Hamilton of Missouri beating him.

DETROIT U LOSES MANY OF ITS STARS

Harold Lauer Full Back One of the Men Who Graduate, Coach Duffy Expects to Have Many Good Men to Start With.

DETROIT, Jan. 14.—Although hampered by the loss of Harold Lauer, who ranked as one of the best fullbacks last year, the University of Detroit football team is expected by its supporters to at least duplicate the record for 1921. The team last year won all of its games except the final one of the season, when it bowed to Washington and Jefferson by a 14 to 2 score.

With Lauer will go seven other players who distinguished themselves during the 1921 campaign. In most instances, however, the places of the retiring men can be filled with comparatively little trouble.

Next to Lauer, Detroit will miss Tom Kenney, the center, most, Jerry, brother of Tom, will be relied upon to uphold family tradition at the pivot position.

Among the other stars lost to the 1922 squad are Fitzgerald, half back, Kane, end, and Brennan, quarterback. They played in every game during the 1921 season.

Coach Jimmy Duffy has a large number of tried men for the backfield this year. Captain Arthur "Patsy" McKenna, Loomis, Welch, O'Neill and Simpson, the latter an adept forward passer, are the outstanding figures. Morrison, Barrett, Coyle and Curtin are available as flankers.

Ellis and Sonnenberg, the Detroit tackles who largely were responsible for the 1921 success, will be back next fall. McNamara, Maher, Gillis and Des Roches are seasoned guards.

Detroit will go under the freshman rule this year. The rule will be identical with that enforced in the Western Conference except that there will be no training table. It is hoped by supporters of the school that a more pretentious schedule may be arranged in future years through the adoption of this rule. The hope of Detroit supporters is an annual game with Notre Dame.

The first unit of the University's new athletic field located on property recently purchased by the school, will be ready for the first game of the 1922 season. The unit will have a seating capacity of 30,000. When completed the stadium will seat 70,000 persons, making it one of the largest in the country. The athletic plant will consist of sixteen and one-half acres and will be open to the city.

RICKEY WILL STAND PAT ON TEAM

ST. LOUIS, Mo., (By the A. P.)—Manager Branch Rickey of the Cardinals plans to start the 1922 championship race with virtually the same team that finished in third place last year.

Rickey declares today that he made numerous attempts to strengthen his pitching and catching staffs by trades but that all deals fell through. He said he does not expect to transact any deals which would have any important effect on his club's chances for the pennant.

The Cardinal pilot asserted that all his efforts from now until the opening of the season, would be devoted to building up his team from players in the roster.

No trouble is anticipated by Rickey in signing members of the club to contracts for the 1922 season. Several outfielders already have affixed their signatures to new contracts.

CHRISTMAS IN DEVASTATED FRANCE.

(By Mary Wadsworth.)

Last Memorial Day at the services at Belleau Wood Cemetery, little did I think that I would be so fortunate as to be present again on Christmas morning.

Thru the courtesy of the New York Herald (Paris Edition) holly wreaths were placed on every unknown American soldier's grave in France. (1883) and the placing of the three hundred at Belleau Wood was in charge of Dr. Wadsworth of the Memorial Chateau-Thierry.

At 11:30 Christmas morning, (the time that you at home, were just waking up and calling "Merry Christmas") our personnel, including Dr. and Mrs. Wadsworth, Miss Sedgwick, Mesdemoiselles Duvaliers, our guests, Mrs. Tilton and her daughter, Lieutenant I. H. Joffe (American Graves Registration Service) "Chef" Descey with thirty-one of his Eclaircours de France (Boy Scouts) left for Belleau Cemetery, about eight miles from town. We were met by the care-taker, a representative of the Herald, the old cure from the village and possibly fifteen or more little school children from the devastated village.

Just at noon Dr. Wadsworth, with the cure, entered the cemetery, followed by the scouts in military precision. Forming a circle at the foot of the flag pole flying together the American and French flags, the short impressive service was held.

Dr. Wadsworth in simple words gave the thought that was to assure "those dear boys from our homeland over the seas that they were remembered; that in those homes, hearts were yearning to this place and home folks were longing, themselves, to place the wreaths with loving hands upon these graves." Then he repeated that wonderful poem of Henry Webb

Farrington, "We Rest In Chateau Thierry."

"No mother dearest,
The earth is not hard, here
About me:
It feels like the covers
You tucked in so close,
When you bent o'er the bedside,
And kissed me good-night;
For it's pressed by the tread
Of my buddies, who fell,
And the brave stretcher-bearers
Who found me.

"No, my dear daddy,
The snow is not cold, here
About me:
I think of the feathers we Slept in at home,
With the pure, clean counterpane
Spotless and white,
Like the smooth, shiny crust
Of my favorite hill
Where we coasted and slid down together.

"No, little sister,
The stars are not harsh in Their shining,
For they are the ones, who
With Deborah's hosts
And with Barak's men fought in Their courses to win:
And they helped on the big hill
The woods and at Vaux;
You must watch them, and love them
As ever.

"No, my brave brother, Think not I am sad and Unhappy.
For this is the town where Jean la Fontaine was born.
He has left in the air, all
The princes, the elves,
And the animals, too
For they act all his stories
To me every day; I Am happy.

"No, mother dearest,
Your son is not slighted, Neglected.
Each day come our boys, and
They pass not a tag,
Many choke as they read them,
And send us a thot,
Yes, those big strapping fellows
Shed tears, for they feel
We are dead and forgotten
Forever.

"Yes, precious Mother,
Your boy has a mother's Remembrance.
Those wonderful mothers
Of France, stricken too,
Come with flowers, and wreaths Made of glass, and they utter
A prayer, and call me their son.
Do not worry, dear Mother,
We are resting in Chateau-Thierry."

The cure gave a benediction for those buried there of Catholic faith and Dr. Wadsworth closed with a most touching prayer. The Scouts, forming in two rows, with the school children of Belleau, went up one row and down the next, stopping at each cross marked "Unknown American Soldier," saluted and placed a wreath.

If every mother might have been there that minute in the quiet solemnity, in that sea of white crosses and looking up on the hill, have seen the dignified 2nd Division Monument surrounded by charred tree-stumps that bear witness to the tremendous loss of June, 1918.

I felt very fortunate that I could personally place holly branches on the graves of a few of the "Known"—on the grave of Corporal Oscar Vollrath from home, who is buried almost beneath the flag-pole, on Lieutenant Orville Johnson of Albany, whose family were here last summer, and the Bellows boy from California. Thru some mistake his parents never knew of his burial, until a friend discovered his name at Belleau last August. Since then, his family have written us several times.

Despite the sleeting rain and cold, there was a thrill and warmth that we were given the opportunity to give tribute to the Unknown soldiers, equally brave as the one who lies under the Arc de Triumph, or in Westminster Abbey or in Arlington.

By one o'clock, the time we reached Chateau-Thierry, the children were gathering out in front of the Memorial, waiting for the scheduled Fete de Noel at 4 P. M. In spite of the sleet, it was necessary to lock the doors till the appointed hour. So when they were finally opened it was like so many little wet feet, cold wild animals struggling in their eagerness to enter. Up on the third floor is the recreation room, like a small theater without a slanting floor, and there the children were seated according to ages with the wee ones on the front rows. Yes, two hundred seventy-eight scrambled up the stairs, clutching the coveted "Carte d'Entree" which indicated that they had been regular attendants since October 1st in the Classe de Garde, Classe de Couture, (sewing class), Classe d'Anglais (English class) or Scouts.

The program opened with Christmas songs, and then a series of tableaux representing the Annunciation, the Shepherds Following the Star, the Adoration, etc. They were beautiful and the great charm was in the lighting effects. For example, in the Adoration, Joseph stood at one side, the Virgin kneeling before a crude manger, with the shepherds in the background, a very powerful electric light was in the manger, reflecting into the faces of the adoring ones—symbolizing the light of the Christ-Child.

After a while, a big noise was heard in the court a violent ringing of the concierge's bell—a clatter and racket that could be heard even above the noise up stairs. Pere Noel appeared. He wore the traditional brown monk's robe and cowl, white hair, beard, red cheeks and carried on his shoulders a mammoth basket. O, the shouts and cries of joy. He explained that he had traveled so far and was so completely exhausted, that Miss Sedgwick would read his letter. The first question, "How many little boys and girls have been naughty during the year." There was a deathly silence, you could almost hear their little hearts beating, till Miss Sedgwick said, "They were all tres sage (very good) at the Memorial." What a relief! Pere Noel, with a violent gesture threw away the bundles of sticks he'd brot for the bad ones.

A second curtain was drawn and beheld the tree in all its glory, glitter and colored lights, with piles of presents. It was a moment I shall never forget, those three hundred starving little faces. O, the joy, the thrills, the happiness. That front row of little four-year-olds, gasping blinking in rapture—to some the first tree they had ever seen—and some even in tears of joy not fear, for as one little girl said, "Non, non, Mademoiselle, je suis heureux." (I'm just happy.)

The two hundred seventy-eight each received a simple little gift, a tangle of candy and nuts. It was almost reverential, the way the bags were handled and guarded. Less than ten, I wager, were opened while here. It was a glorious fete a Christmas never to be forgotten, and every moment of work, of fatigue was a million-fold repaid by just one minute of our Christmas afternoon. I wished that every one of my friends might have shared with me Christmas, 1921.

GRANT GRAFF OUT OF SHERIFF'S RACE

Well Known Politician Decides Not to Seek Preference in Coming Primary Contest.

New interest is given to pre-election affairs in Morgan county Saturday by the announcement of County Treasurer Grant Graff of his withdrawal from the race for Republican nomination for sheriff. There have been rumors for some time that Mr. Graff was thinking of this action, but not until yesterday was there anything definite from Mr. Graff himself.

In talking about the matter the popular county treasurer explained that he believes that it would be the best thing for the party and himself not to make the race at this time. "I have been in politics a long time," said Mr. Graff, "and the Republican party has been mighty good to me. I announced my candidacy for the nomination for sheriff without giving the matter very serious thought. The election is several months in the future and a successful candidate must make a vigorous campaign, and as I thought of it I became less and less inclined to make the race.

"As I have already said, the party has treated me well in the past years and a great many of my friends have gone forward voluntarily and pledged their support to my candidacy at this time. The fact is I feel that I have had my share of elective office holding, for the present at least, and so I am willing to step aside and let the contest proceed among the other candidates.

"I want to say while I am talking about this matter that I am exceedingly grateful to my friends locally and in all parts of the county, for the generous treatment they have accorded me."

WORK COMPLETED AT T. B. SANATORIUM

Institution Is Now Ready for Use, Although Opening Will Not Come Until About February 1.

The final work at the Morgan county tuberculosis sanatorium has moved along so satisfactorily in recent weeks that the institution is now ready for use. Dr. T. O. Hardesty, secretary of the board, said yesterday that 28 rooms have been furnished and that the dining room is equipped for 40 persons. However, the actual work at the institution will not begin until about February 1, when Dr. Martin, the newly appointed superintendent, will take charge.

In the beginning a registered tuberculosis nurse and one or more practical nurses will serve as assistants to the superintendent. While the work of finishing and furnishing has been completed, some details of management are to be worked out before patients are actually received.

The farm land in connection with the grounds of the sanatorium will be utilized this next spring and it is the plan of the board to have enough cows to supply the sanatorium with milk. Through the farm and garden departments it is the hope that operations costs of the sanatorium may be somewhat reduced.

Mr. Curry, Dr. Hardesty and Mr. Turnbull as members of the board in these recent weeks have been devoting a great deal of time to the work in order to have the institution in operation by February 1st.

FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN AMERICA AND JAPAN SIGNALLY PROMOTED

Statement is Made By Baron Kato in An Address in New York City Last Night—
Says There Was Talk of War Two Months Ago—Does Not Fear Far East Problems

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The advancement of American-Japanese friendship has been signally promoted by the Washington conference, Admiral Baron Tomasaburo Kato, senior Japanese delegate to the conference, said tonight in an address before the Japanese Society.

"In a few short weeks," he said, "we have dissipated the clouds that marred the naturally clear and happy skies of the Pacific."

"Two months ago," Baron Kato continued, "we heard loose talk of possible war. Today we are contemplating an established peace. Early in November the newspapers frequently used such phrases as 'conflict of interests,' 'supremacy of the seas,' and 'menacing aggressions'; today they are talking more in terms of 'understanding,' 'accord,' and 'co-operation'; and the principal criticism of Japan nowadays is that she does 'not' agree quite as quickly as you make proposals for accord."

"Nor is this, my friends only phraseology. Critics may say such declarations as we have been making at Washington were made a hundred years ago at Vienna and subsequently at the Hague, and therefore will amount to nothing. But that is not the case for very definite reasons. In the first place the several nations represented at Washington have given the concessions they have made to the views of others, tangible demonstrations of the earnestness of their intentions. Unless the spirit that actuates the people of these nations were deeprooted in sincere desire, these concessions would not have been possible. Fortunately the interests and the desires of the greater nations of the world are in accord; otherwise, the scrapping of hundreds of thousands of tons of freight ships would not be practicable or acceptable."

"I want particularly to draw your attention to one fact. An effort has been made for a number of years to present Japanese to you as a military nation designing to dominate the Pacific. Within these recent weeks Japan by accepting the 5-5-3 ratio, has given evidence which only the weak minded will in future dispute. We never aspired or intended to challenge the security of America or her far ranging possessions; we have sought only security for ourselves."

Admiral Kato declared that "the agreement to limit the construction of offensive or capital ships, altho it does not totally destroy the physical equipment for war at sea, does effectively remove from the relations of the great naval powers the distrust attended on naval competition."

"Would it be voicing too utopian a hope to say the benefit of the naval agreement will not end with the naval holiday. After ten years of lighter taxes and freedom from debt and from the threat of war the nations may well be ready to say:

"We have got on well and peacefully with these obsolete ships. Why build new ones?"

No Far Off East Problem.

In the matter of far eastern problems, Baron Kato said that the conference delegations discovered that they were in substantial agreement on justice to China and on her right to develop her agreement without outside interference. It needed no argument, he affirmed to me who will be reasonable, "that the best interests of Japan will be served by an independent, orderly and well governed China—for such a China will supply the raw materials essential to Japan's life, will possess the means of purchasing Japan's products and will be secure from the menace of foreign attack."

"But there is a word of warning that should be spoken," he added. "The difficulties in China cannot be cleared away in a day. In spite of the hopes of her friends, among whom we count ourselves, the work to be done is so vast that the problem of it may be with us for decades."

Referring to the four power Pacific treaty he remarked that although the geographical scope of the treaty is limited strictly to the area of the Pacific, its influence and example for peace will embrace the whole world.

"The frank discussion and the publicity which have distinguished this conference have removed most of the ignorance of one another which created distrust. It is already an unqualified success and from my point of view we could so describe it if it had accomplished nothing besides bringing us Americans and Japanese so much closer together."

WILL DEMAND PROOF OF SERVICE

Springfield.—(By The A. P.)—Proof of service to benefit by the $55,000,000 Illinois soldiers' bonus, should the measure be approved by the people of the state next November, will be demanded of all ex-service men and women. Blanks are being sent out by Adj. Gen. Dickson for the purpose of having much of the information available by the time the question is put up to the people. War veterans are required to give their service records to guard against impostors.

MARKETS FOR SOY BEANS AVAILABLE

Decatur.—(By A. P.)—Markets for 2,500,000 bushels of soy beans raised in Illinois are available, according to a state soy bean committee. This is the estimated production of about 165,000 acres. Representatives of a St. Louis oil company have announced plans for installing equipment to care for about 15,000 tons of beans in 1922.

THEATER PARTY.

Miss Hazel Dell Yeck entertained some of her friends at a theater party Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Marteen Day who will leave Sunday for Chicago, where she will reside.

After the show, the guests assembled at the Peacock Inn, in the blue room, where refreshments were served and the remainder of the afternoon was spent in dancing. The guests departed and all bid Miss Day farewell, and the afternoon proved a most pleasant one.

GERMAN SHIPYARDS ARE BUSY TURNING OUT MERCHANTMEN

Plan to Control Maritime World Commerce

KIEL, GERMANY. — (By the A. P.)—The machine guns of peace, pneumatic riveters, are rattling day and night in the former war harbor of Kiel, where a score of large commercial ships are under construction, the majority of them for use in the campaign Germany is waging for control of the maritime commerce of the world.

All of the great shipyards are active, but not all of them are working toward increasing the German commercial fleet. Scores of Scandinavian, Dutch and English ships are docked here, undergoing repairs or being remodelled. The cost to the foreigners is negligible, and the Germans are willing to work.

The mouth of the Kaiser Wilhelm canal is congested with the traffic that is cutting through from the North to the Baltic sea. It is upon this traffic that Kiel hopes to build its commercial future; this and the shipment of cargoes to the north, when commerce with Russia flourishes again.

Laborers at Kiel are paid 400 to 500 marks per week, and skilled labor runs in some cases to 1500 marks a week, for an eight-hour day. The unions are strong and have forced the payment of time and a half for overtime. The cost of living is low.

The Krupp works are the busiest, and Hugo Stinnes, Germany's chief industrialist, is the best patron. He built freighters and tankers out of former U-boats. Two of these recently made a round trip to Mexico in good time and without accident. When loaded the rounded U-boat understructure is below the waterline, but the boats present an odd appearance when in ballast.

The hulks of several warships are being slowly dismantled every piece of iron being carefully stowed away for use in the building of commercial boats.

MR. JAEGER GOES TO NEW POSITION

Adam Jaeger who for two years has been the successful manager of the Woolworth Five and Ten Cent store in this city, has been promoted to the management of the Woolworth store in Chicago Heights, Ill. The new post to which Mr. Jaeger goes involves greater responsibilities and is a merited advance in his line of work. Mr. Jaeger will leave for Chicago tonight and his family will later move to Chicago Heights to live. Mr. and Mrs. Jaeger have made many friends in Jacksonville who will regret to learn that this will no longer be their home.

L. D. Pierce who has been the manager of the Woolworth store in Beardstown, has been transferred to Jacksonville and will come here at once to assume the management of the local store.

EMPLOYEES ENTITLED TO FREE TRANSPORTATION

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Railway employees granted leave of absence to do organization work for labor unions are entitled to free transportation on their roads until the leave is officially cancelled. It was held by a decision of the railroad labor board today.

The decision was handed down in the case of E. Reilly, general chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, freight handlers, express and station employees for the Pere Marquette railway.

With Morgan County Poets

BEAUTY

I watched the Aurora
Spread under the Pivot
A bright flashing curtain
Of marvelous rays;
And then came a notion—
A rare inspiration—
To fashion a verse
As worthy of praise;
A verse of exalted
And such pure expression,
That all should acclaim it
Immortal in phrase.

But lo! while I dallied
The Flame quickly vanished,
And left me alone
In the deep hush of night;
Discouraged and hampered
By meshes of rhythm,
And only a memory
Spared of the sight;
The effort to say
What I felt was amiss,
And the verse I had pondered
Seemed labored and trite.

But the Painter of Rainbows,
Almighty Preserver
Of absolute beauty,
Whom Time cannot fool
(On earth none the less,
Be it painting or verse,
A year or an age
Marks the end of a school)
Goes on with his painting,
For millions of years,
For millions of years
Never changing His rule.

The Painter of rainbows
Auroras and sunsets,
His canon of beauty
Will always endure;
His brush on the sky,
His hand on the rocks,
His voice in the wind,
Always steady and sure;
In these finished arts
Does Beauty obtain—
Fleeting, renewable,
Faultless and pure.

THINGS ELECTRICAL THEME OF ADDRESS

Woman's Club Greatly Interested In Statements By Representative of the Central Illinois Service Company.

The members of the Jacksonville Woman's club listened to an interesting and enlightening address on modern electrical appliances yesterday afternoon, delivered by C. O. Dunten of the speakers bureau of the Central Illinois Service company. His talk gave his audience a very comprehensive idea of the organization and value of the large utility company, and also considered the various progressive strides made during the last few years in the invention and use of electrical appliances.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. A. B. Williamson, after which several reports were read and approved. The club then had the pleasure of hearing several beautiful numbers rendered by Mrs. A. R. Gregory in her charming manner. The president then turned the meeting over to Mrs. J. Marshall Miller, chairman of the program committee for the afternoon, who introduced Mr. Dunten with a few remarks on the practical age we are living in.

Mr. Dunten told of the great value of utilities companies to communities, and of their effect in making the world a more pleasant place to live in. Formerly these companies were owned and backed by only big financiers but the present trend is toward ownership by the people of the communities served. There are now 400,000 people in the state of Illinois back of the utility companies.

Huge Plants Grow.

Few people realize the wonderful workmanship and quantity of materials needed for the machinery used in the big power plants. Materials are brought from every corner of the globe and the most accurate work is necessary.

In the past there have been small isolated plants in use in the various communities, but the present day developments show an ever increasing tendency to give the smaller towns service from huge plants favorably where there is water power or some such advantage.

To show the wonderful progress made in the field of electricity, Mr. Dunten took as an example the electric lamp. The first lamp was made by Thomas A. Edison some forty or fifty years ago. The first lamp that ever burned, burned for four minutes only. The inventor experienced the greatest difficulty in finding the proper materials for his work. Now the lamp is a common convenience that hardly occasions any comment or thought.

The speaker then made a general review of all of the electrical appliances now in common use, starting with the electric iron. He brought out the interesting fact that there are two irons, electric irons, for every family in Chicago. That great blessing for the housewife, the washing machine, was his next topic. He told of the development of this invention, and of the different kinds, the old rubbing kind, the cylinder type and the latest oscillating type.

Vacuum cleaners were next. These wonderful labor savers are very new and are counted among the most necessary of all now. He then took up a number of modern conveniences including gas and electric ranges, heating pads, electric sewing machines, electric dishwashers, electric refrigerators, toasters, grills, curling irons, percolators, tea samovars, tooth brushes and even electrically wired furniture that solves the problem of correct lighting.

In rounding up his address, Mr. Dunten showed that the great utilities companies affect almost all household duties, and are of great importance to everyone from the cradle to the grave.

One of the roads would extend from here to Cahokia, another from Belleville to Alton, and the fourth from O'Fallon to Carlyle.

PARENT-TEACHER
ASSOCIATION WINS

Bellville.—(By The A. P.)—The parent-teacher association won a victory over the board of education here when the board receded from its stand against "movies" and granted permission for the use of educational films in the junior high school. The controversy was so heated a year ago that it resulted in the resignation of Superintendent Oscar F. Weber.

HOTEL RATES ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE IN BERLIN, GERMANY

Are Likely to Change With But Short
Notice

BERLIN.—(By the A. P.)—Foreigners sojourning in Berlin have learned that "prices go up, but never come down," regardless of the rise or fall of the German mark. Visitors here, compelled to live in the first-class hotels, may secure rooms at prices which they consider reasonable compared with home prices, but the illusion of "cheapness" soon vanishes. At least once a month prices are increased, and the usual increase is 100 percent. The notice of increase is sent the day before the new rates are effective. There is no recourse but to pay. The only furnished rooms or apartments to be had are in the suburbs, and are impracticable because of the frequent strikes on the transportation lines.

Disadvantages of living in second class hotels, in addition to the absence of modern conveniences, are multiplied by the restlessness of the workers. Hardly a week passes without a strike of electric workers, porters, cooks, maids—in which case the hotels, as well as the office buildings in which the foreigners must work are dark and without service.

Within the last three months there have been strikes on underground and surface railways, in the electric power plants, of all the employees in restaurants, the chauffeurs, as well as workmen in such trades as tailoring, printing and other lines. The last strike was called by the janitors of apartment and office buildings which were left without heat during the coldest days of the winter. And to every bill which the patrons of the hotels and restaurants must pay there is added a divvvy of taxes or surcharges for the state, the city, or the help. Also, tips are still expected and received, although hotel and restaurant employees recently consented to abolish the tip when granted a ten percent commission on all bills, and increase in wages, and a percentage of the weekly incomes of their employers.

NEW RAILROAD BRIDGE PLANNED

JAPANESE SPEAKER SAYS DEVELOPEMENT OF CHINA NECESSARY

Says That Her Vast Purchasing and Producing Power Would Provide Markets for and a Source of Supply Necessary to Japan—Issues a Warning to People of America

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—An orderly and honestly governed China means the development of China's vast but latent purchasing and producing power, Masunosuke Odagiri, financial adviser to the Japanese delegation at the Washington conference declared in an address tonight before the Japanese Society here.

China, Mr. Odagiri said, would naturally provide the markets and sources of supply essential to Japan whose resources are comparatively meager. Japan's interests, therefore, he added, lies in a stabilized and prosperous China.

"Instead of China being a reason for controversy between the United States and Japan," the speaker continued, "she should be one for cooperation. If America and Japan will work together the future of the Chinese people will be best served; if we permit ourselves to be made rivals by a group of scheming self-seekers, we shall serve the welfare neither of ourselves nor of China."

He warned Americans not to permit their sentiment to be aroused unwisely by China's "sympathetic advocates who were prone to conduct her failings and lay the blame on others" while Japan, he said, should guard against taking advantage of China's misfortune.

Mr. Odagiri said he wanted to make the practical proposal that Americans extended their interests in China either with or without Japan's co-operation. Meantime the four power financial consortium he asserted was an important factor seeking to prevent "wanton and dangerous borrowing by China, and to insure that money borrowed is properly and honestly expended."

Mr. Odagiri continued: "The conference at Washington has done a tremendous work perhaps all that is possible in stabilizing the status of China among the great powers. China has been given a new and most formidable pledge of security and promise of sympathy and support. With wise and honest leadership she cannot fail to profit incalculably by the work which has been accomplished in these recent weeks at Washington."

Bomb as Financial Factor."A very interesting fact has developed in connection with the Conference for the Limitation of Armaments. At first thought this fact makes one feel very discouraged but on further analysis it has some very optimistic features. In other words the one thing which is causing the Conference the greatest trouble, may be the one thing that is to bring the nations together. I refer to the gas bomb."It is a simple matter to make an agreement relative to the building of battle ships and to hold a nation to such an agreement. It takes a couple of years to build a good battleship and it is impossible to hide battleships.
The nations of the world know when any nation lays down a new keel for a new battleship. Battle ships cannot be kept in safety deposit vaults or hid in government buildings. The limitation of submarines and certain other forms of armaments is also practically possible. Big herthas are not as conspicuous as battleships; gun factories are more easily hid than ship yards; but in the long run the making of these cannot be kept a secret."It, however, is absolutely impossible to keep in touch with the manufacture of gas bombs.
The German government could keep in the basement of one of its palaces enough compressed gas to destroy all the people in Paris and a good proportion of the French army. Therefore, tho all nations might agree on the limitation of armaments yet there would be no way to enforce such an agreement. Moreover, as the commercial interests of the world demand the building and use of airplanes in times of peace, the means will always be available for the dropping of gas bombs.
Hence altho the Conference may be successful in limiting the buildings of battle ships, submarines and even other things, yet it is helpless in limiting the manufacture of gas bombs, the most dangerous and deadly of all implements of war."As a result of this the delegates are passing thru a most interesting spiritual renaissance.
They came to Washington armed with statistics and accompanied by the greatest legal talent of their countries. They are gradually coming to believe that figures and agreements are of little value and that they need specialists on "feelings" rather than on "figures." In short those who came to scoff have remained to pray. There is a strong belief among the delegates of today that the only solution of our international problems is the goldenrule and the principles that Jesus laid down two thousand years ago."What has this to do with a financial article? You ask. It has a great deal to do with finance. The great load on the financial world today is Europe. The greatest difficulty with Europe is the hard feelings and jealousy among certain nations. There is plenty of money available to rebuild Europe and again to make her factories hum and her fields blossom forth.
The difficulty is that those who have the money feel that the money would not be used for the restitution of Europe, but rather simply result in further fighting and destruction."Hence all of the European government are in dire financial straits and some are on the verge of bankruptcy. This condition of affairs has disrupted foreign trade and is jeopardizing all foreign credits. It hangs a great black cloud over the business world."But the deadly gas bomb may be the means of bringing every nation to its senses. It is actually converting financiers, diplomats and hard headed statesmen to those fundamentals of honesty, justice, thrift, industry and kindness, which in the long run form the basis of prosperity. It is even possible that Europe may again experience a great spiritual renaissance as took place three hundred years ago."Bankers are watching this change of attitude on the part of these foreign delegates with great interest. President Harding little realized when calling this conference that he was laying the seed for a great international, spiritual revival. The inventor of the gas bomb and those other chemists which since the armistice have invented gas infinitely more dangerous than it was during the war have also made their contribution.
For the first time for many years a ray of sunshine is breaking thru the international clouds. Let us watch the situation most carefully.
If the clouds finally break and clear away a most rapid change will take place in foreign and American security markets, a change which should distinctly affect the business index of the Babsonchart which now stands below normal. For the first time in many years I am somewhat hopeful for Europe and its recovery."The Babsonchart shows general business 18 per cent below normal, a drop of 10 per cent from last week. Business is experiencing a mid-winter reaction that will doubtless carry well into February. There is good business to be had, however, for the man who goes after it aggressively."MARKHAM.Miss Henrietta Clark, state

The One-Ton Truck

The Ford One-Ton Truck first made its appeal to the farmer and the merchant because of the merits of Ford Cars. And it made its wonderful reputation and great sales record because it lived up to every claim made for it.

The reliable Ford Motor, the special Ford steel chassis, the aluminum bronze worm-drive, all combine to produce a truck of unusual power, capacity and strength—a truck that lasts in service; a truck that solves the haulage problem at a very small operating and upkeep expense. Hence the demand for the Ford One-Ton Truck is constantly on the increase.

For the good of your business, whether it be farming, merchandising or manufacturing, you should come in and look over the Ford One-Ton Truck—NOW!

IMPORTANT

We are prepared to furnish the Ford Truck equipped either with Standard or Special Gearing. The Standard Gearing gives the truck a maximum of power. The Special Gearing increases the speed of the truck from five to seven miles an hour, converting it into a Fast Delivery Car.

THE TELEPHONE COMPANY AND STORM LOSSES.

By S. W. Ingalls.

Regarding an article by Mr. L. O. Vaught in the Journal of Jan. 12, 1922, concerning the loss of the Illinois Telephone Company through the recent sleet storm I would like to make a few observations and I shall feel the greatest freedom in doing so as I have no connection in any way whatever with the Company. At one time I owned quite an amount of stock in the Illinois Telephone Company, but I disposed of it all simply because I was not receiving a fair return on my investment, when the company was running under normal conditions. Telephone patrons in Jacksonville who can remember back twenty-five years will recall that in those days they paid $4.50 per month for a single line business telephone, 3.00 for an individual residence line, and $2.50 for a two-party residence line and at that time those patrons had access to between 400 and 500 other telephone subscribers. Just in proportion as a telephone area increases, its service becomes more valuable to a user which accounts for the fact that a telephone in Chicago is worth more to the patron than it would be in Woodson or Bluffs. Before the Illinois Company acquired the subscribers of the Bell Company, Morgan county had access to about 3300 patrons and since that acquisition, to almost 5000 patrons. Mr. Vaught sees no reason for a raise in rates evidently jumping at the conclusion that the more subscribers a Company has, the cheaper per telephone, it can furnish service, and Mr.

NEWS NOTES FROM THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Chamber of Commerce board of directors have decided to make a survey of the labor supply of Jacksonville as has been previously announced in the Journal. The object of a survey at this time is because a great many manufacturers are ready to move from the larger cities into cities the size of Jacksonville. Their reasons for desiring to locate in smaller towns are obvious, for instance, a manufacturer in Chicago must pay higher rents, higher taxes and because living costs are higher must pay higher wages than would be required in Jacksonville.

At this time there are several of these firms that have been in conference with the Chamber of Commerce relative to locating in this city.

It was found that everything required to reach an agreement could be met except that no one was in a position to answer accurately the most important question of all which was, "Have you sufficient labor to fill these factories?"

The Chamber of Commerce directors feel that sufficient men and boys can be secured but are not clear as to the number of girls and women who would work in factories of this kind. As a first step to ascertain this information a questionnaire has been inserted in both newspapers requesting those girls and women who desired work to fill in same and return it at once to the Chamber of Commerce. Unless at least 800 replies are received it would appear useless to attempt to secure a large industry for Jacksonville, so far the response has not been satisfactory, although hardly sufficient time has elapsed since the questionnaires were first printed.

The Chamber of Commerce officials take this opportunity to urge those who desire work at wages from $8.00 to $20.00 per week to fill in the questionnaire and mail it to the office of the organization or call personally and register your name with the secretary. This survey must be completed within the next ten days.

THE JOHNSTON AGENCY

Road conditions are materially improved over last week. All main highways leading into Jacksonville are in good condition, according to the following report furnished by the good roads committee of the Chamber of Commerce, Morgan County Good Roads and Automotive Dealers' Association. The report follows:

Virginia Road.

Winchester.
Road to Winchester in very good condition by turning south at the foot of the mound hill some bad road can be avoided near the Point church.

To White Hall.
Road good to Murraville, rather rough to Manchester, good from there to White Hall.

To Waverly.
Road good by going by the way of the Union Baptist church near Pisgah.

As to service, I want to say that I have lived in several different cities and towns the last few years, and the service given by the Illinois Telephone Company on an average compares favorably with the best of them. In Springfield today the monthly rate on a single business line phone is 6.75, two party lines $5.75, one party residence $3.25, two party residence 2.75 and rural $2.25. The business rate in Quincy is $5.75, two party business $4.75, single line residence $2.75, two party residence $2.25 and rural $2.00. In Decatur one line business is $4.00 and $7.00 in Rockford with residence rates in proportion.

As I stated in the beginning I have no connection with the Illinois Telephone Company in any way, and I did not write this at their solicitation, but I want to see the Company stay in business and I feel that if they were given a fair living rate, the people of Jacksonville and surrounding territory would not have any just cause for complaint.

been settled. In commenting upon the Boston recital "The Boston Herald" says Miss Sapio: "Mlle. Sapio played selections by Debussy, Cyril Scott and Chopin with brilliancy and with sufficient expression. The applause which she received would have warranted an extra number, but this was made impossible by the somewhat precipitate entrance of Mme.
Calve". In "The Boston Globe" the following appeared: "Mlle. Sapio, and excellent accompanist, proved that she has abilities as a soloist by several numbers from Debussy, Cyril Scott, and Chopin."

Miss Florence Kirby, pianist, appeared in recital at South Bend, Ind., on December 30. The following excerpts from South Bend papers indicate the favor she gained there:

From the South Bend News-Times:
"Her technique is flawless, her tones remarkable and her interpretations interesting."

"The ease and clearness with which she offered this composition (Haydn's 'Andante con Vari-atione') was a revelation and a remarkable one. Her audience soon knew they were listening to a pianist of the first quality."

"The sensation of the evening was the last number on the program, Grieg's 'Concerto in A Minor'."

From the South Bend Tribune:
"Power of expression, the artists keen sense of interpretive value, and a rare degree of pianistic ability were demonstrated."

"Miss Kirby's particular triumph of the evening, Grieg's 'Concerto in A Minor' afforded the audience a climax of artistic endeavor."

WHITE HALL CHURCH SERVED BANQUET

People of First Baptist Church Realized Goodly Sum From Thursday Night Event—Other White Hall News Notes.

WHITE HALL, Jan. 13. — A communication from Hon. H. P. Lowenstein, of Kansas City, formed the basis of the remarks in connection with the oyster banquet in the First Baptist church tonight so far as the speakers give consideration to the work of compiling White Hall history. Mr. Lowenstein is very much interested in this line of work sponsored by the Wendell class, under whose auspices the oyster supper was given as a means of raising funds for the activities of the class. The banquet began at 7 o'clock, but it was not a formal affair and stews were served to all comers during the evening. At 8 o'clock there was provision for music to add to the pleasure, the talent including Miss Bird Duncan and Mrs. R. A. Pritchett, Miss Doris English and Miss Jessie Ross.

Word has been received concerning the sudden death of James Hoffnagle at Roseville on Wednesday evening. He was agent for the Burlington road at that point, and was at one time located at White Hall, being well known along the road. He was agent at Medora for a number of years previous to going to the Roseville agency some ten years ago. He was about 45 years of age and leaves a family.

The January dinner of the Brotherhood next Tuesday night will give consideration to community affairs, the speaker being Prof. R. E. Heironymus of the University of Illinois, a leading authority on community organization and welfare. At this time it may also give consideration to the promotional aspects of the Brotherhood by starting a movement within the organization for the realization of a strong and virile commercial body.

Rev. L. E. Ellison has accepted a call to the pastorate of the First Baptist church, and will enter upon the duties February 15th. He comes from Villa Grove, Ill., entering the ministry from the ranks of railroad workers, and has achieved marked success in the comparatively few years he has been in the pulpit, being a man now approaching middle age. He was singled out as the right sort of man for the White Hall charge and a call was tendered to him about two weeks ago.

PAIGE

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CAR IN AMERICA

Where Can You Match This Paige at $1465

Sweeping price reductions in the 1922 models of Paige motor cars place the New Series 6-44 five-passenger touring car at the new low figure of $1465.

Here is a sensational money-saving opportunity. This car, always a leader among light sixes because of its exceptional quality and value, originally sold for $1965. Buyers of 1922 cars now purchase the latest improved edition of this model at a saving of $500 on the original investment.

Astonishing as this may seem, it by no means tells the whole story of what Paige has accomplished under new manufacturing conditions. The New Series 6-44 represents not alone finer and more luxurious equipment, but a power plant that has been highly perfected and refined—with more power and speed and greater flexibility.

The New Series 6-44 at $1465 is a vastly better car than the one that sold for $1965. Consequently there is an amazing increase in dollar-for-dollar value. Inspect and test this car and prove these facts for yourself.

THE CHICAGO LIVE STOCK EXCHANGE

For some reason or other cattle in merely warmed-up condition are reaching the market in excessive numbers. When supply is temporarily reduced prices advance sharply enabling feeders to get a price for their feed; resultant heavy runs enable killers to raise prices, the margin of profit either vanishing or being greatly reduced. Financial necessity and lack of confidence in the immediate future of the market are liquidation influences. That such cattle must be sacrificed is to be regretted as few of them could be replaced for the money they realize.

Killers perennial complaint is "too many cattle of one kind." A few weeks back they protested an oversupply of long-fed bulls; now they are on the alert for condition and neglecting veneered stuff, the result being a stable market for steers selling anywhere from $10 to $12 per cwt., while the mass of $6.25 to $7.50 stuff fluctuates widely from week to week according to the quantity reaching the market hopper. Doubtless many of these cattle could be held and whenever possible this would be good policy as the visible supply is not excessive if it could be distributed. Beef consumption is reviving, now that the holiday season has passed and it will be logical to expect a healthier market for that commodity as time works along and the industrial situation improves.

Until March 1, it is probable that liquidation of warmed-up cattle will be unrestricted as the financial necessities of that period must be considered. Therefore the residue of the winter crop will be found in strong hands. Supply prospects are radically different from those of a year ago when the corn belt was full of heavy cattle, a large percentage of which were carried along in the elusive hope of a better market, now heavy cattle are found in few feed lots, so that the same number of cattle as came to market last year will furnish much less meat and should consumption of that commodity be materially increased, which is not improbable the value of this property would be substantially enhanced.

The mid-winter movement of stock and feeding cattle from the primary markets to the country is of the smallest volume in many years, for the same reason that warmed-up steers are being sent to the shambles prematurely. This branch of the trade has, however, shown marked stability, compared with the eccentric action of fat cattle trade. In the West stocker values have hardened, heralding broad demand when the time arrives for pasture replenishment and that necessity is approaching with race horse speed. Many who are in a position to carry their cattle through until grass are quietly investing to avoid competition along in April with graziers not so favorably situated.

It would be possible for the whole cattle situation to change over night, in fact such a transformation is scheduled to arrive the moment pressure of shorted stuff subsides and stocker demand develops insistency, as it undoubtedly will. Any impression that the public has thrown beef entirely out of its dietary scheme is erroneous as every

WHEAT RALLIED AT CLOSE OF MARKET
By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—Local shorts driven to cover caused a sharp rally in the last fifteen minutes of today's wheat market on the Chicago Board of Trade and pulled prices back to about where a weak market started from. Other grains were unusually dull and provisions weak. Final prices were 1/2¢ lower to 1/4¢ higher in wheat, 1/4¢ lower in corn and 1/4¢ lower in oats and 10 to 30 points off in provisions.

Wheat was in the doldrums throughout most of the session. Lower prices at Buenos Aires and Liverpool caused some selling at the start and with support lacking the market sagged readily. Transactions were neither numerous nor extensive however, and the decline checked on scattered buying at around $1.10 1/2 for May.

The market rested there until near the close when it was rumored that spring wheat would be sought for Russian seed on Monday. It was also reported that France, Northern Italy and Rumania needed moisture. These factors started some buying just as the early shorts were about to take profits and the pit element suffered in consequence.

Corn and oats were extremely dull and changes were inconsequential. There was some local selling of corn. Holders offered provisions when early reports from the stock yards showed lower prices for live hogs.

Further offerings were brought out by prospects of a big run next week. It was estimated that 70,000 hogs would be received here Monday with 275,000 for all next week.

TRADING ACTIVE IN STOCK MARKET
By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Trading in the two hour session of today's stock market was more active and embraced a greater variety of issue than at any full period of the week. Gains of one to almost three points were made by numerous issues comprising the leading industrials and specialties. From surface indications much of the large turnover reported short covering but observers noted substantial buying of motors.

Business in bonds was in keeping with the extensive market for shares but the trend in that quarter was mixed. Liberty 3 1/2s for example, were under further realizing, closing at a loss of 70 cents per $100.

The actor tone extended to foreign exchanges, sterling demand bills rising to the week's highest quotation, Continental remittances were firm, the Italian rate being in no degree affected by cables announcing the suspension of a bank in Palermo.

Loss of about $40,600,000 in the actual cash account was the only unusual item disclosed by the weekly clearing house statement reflecting excess reserves to little more than $15,000,000. Mercantile trade reviews were favorable.
